DEWEY AND HIS CHANCES

Various Comments on Campaign.

MRS, DEWEY LEAVES ROME

Why the Admiral Hates President McKinley -- Chairman Jones Frees His Mind.

WASHINGTON, April 9.-The report of Mrs. Dewey's change of faith, although admitted neither by the Admiral or herself, has been verified among her intimate friends, many of whom attend St. John's Episcopal Church. Admiral Dewey is very much attached to St. John's. He has held a new there ever since he has lived in Washington. One of his first deads after his return from Manila was to secure a pew in his old place of worhaip. Soon after he was elected a member of the vestry and one of the directors of the Episcopal cathedras fund.

It is believed that in deference to his wishes Mrs. Dewey has consented to return to the church she attended before her conversion, first from Presbyterianism to the mystic doctrines of Theosophy and then to the Roman

"I am not in a position to say much, but if the people of this country do not desire to place the destiny of the na-tion in the hands of a woman, it will be best to let the Admiral remain where he is. I know Mrs. Dewey very well, of course. She was my brother wife. She is a bright, capable, ambi tious woman, quite familiar with pub-lic affairs at Washington."

This was all Judge Hazen would consent to say about the matter.

The Admiral's Campaign.

WASHINGTON, April 13 .- Admiral Dewey's political statement probably will be ready to be given out for publication next Tuesday. He is still waiting to hear from some of his sound money Democratic friends in New York before giving out the important document. He believes that he has behind him all the sound money Democrats in the East and the South, and in conversation with his political friends he says that he is a sound money Jefferson Democrat.

On the expansion issue he occupies middle ground between the President and Mr. Bryan. He is neither an imperialist nor an anti-expansionist. He believes in restoring order in the Philippines and then holding the isl-ands and awaiting developments, probably in the end turning them over to a native government under a United States protectorate.

The Admiral receives a large amount City convention, that the New Jersey delegates can be controlled in his favor and that he will have support from other Eastern States. He expects most of his original support from the Eastern States, but he believes that when the proper time comes the convention be carried by storm for him just as the Chicago convention four years ago was swept off its feet for Mr. Bryan He was much gratifled today to receive an invitation from New Orleans to visit that city, and when he goes to Detroit on June 6th it is his intention to take a swing around the circle and go to New Orleans on his return.

Why Dewey Hates McKinley. CHICAGO, April 14 .- A Washington

special to the Inter Ocean says: The Dewey mystery is explained at last. The reason for the Admiral's sudden announcement of himself as a Presidential candidate and his bitter feeling toward McKinley are cleared up by a discovery made today.

Admiral Dewey furnished a clew to the explanation by complaining to friends that Mr. McKiniey unjustly de-prived him of $10,000. In the Admir-al's opinion the President "robbed him"

The basis for the charge is the fact that President McKinley has been unable to pay Admiral Dewey the same compensation as that received by ciRailway, was held yesterday atternoon

Murray and William Roberts of the President wanted to pay this sum to the Admiral, but the law would not permit. That section of the statute which says no one shall hold two offices of trust and profit under the United States Government, where the compensation exceeds $2,500, was in the way, and though the President dren. tried to find a way around the statute neither he nor his law officers were able to do so, and Dewey cannot have his $10,000.

A month ago Dewey called at the had a severe attack of fever, which white House and asked Mr. McKinley lasted a long time, and he has been reabout compensation for his services as a member of the commission. The also on the high road to health and will President told him he wanted to pay him the same as other civilian mem-

Dewey then volunteered to the President that, in his opinion, there was but one candidate for President in this country—that there should be but one —McKinley.

The Admiral declared he would have vengeance, and in a day or two not only the people of the country, but Dewey's most intimate friends, were amazed and surprised at his announcement that he was a candidate for President. From that day to this the Admiral has been complaining of Me-Kinley and of the Administration in general, and, through his fault-finding, first information concerning the natter leaked out.

An investigation in Administration or investigation in Administration circles discloses great unwillingness to talk about the case. It is not dealed the President refused to pay Dewey the sum paid to other members of the commission, but Mr. McKinley has insued orders that not one word be said about the affair by any of his advisors.

Chairman Jones Talks.

NEW YORK, April 17.—(Afternoon fervice),—A special to the Heraid from Washington says: Senator Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic National Committee said last night that he had no idea what Admiral Dewey's intentions were, or what line of action he would pursue to obtain a presidential nomination. So far as the National Committee as a body was concerned, no letter or com-munication had been addressed to the admiral on the subject of his candi-dacy. Speaking for himself Sen, Jones said he had not written to the Admiral inquiring whether he would enter the Kansas City convention and abide by the result of the convention, but added:

"It is quite probable, however, that others are more curious."

"It is quite possible," continued he, that Admiral Dewey may be suggested a connection with the vice-presidency, but I have not the slightest idea that he will be proposed seriously as a pres-idential candidate. Public sentiment has already decreed that Mr. Bryan is to be the nominee of the regular Demo-cratic party and in my judgment the men who will represent the Democratic party at Kansas City will carry out the the Democratic masses and will name Mr. Bryan.

"So far as Admiral Dewey is con-cerned I have no means of knowing whether he proposes, as a Democrat, to come to the regular organization and abide by the consequences, or whether he and his friends intend to hold an independent convention similar to that which named a third party ticket four years ago headed by General Palmer,"

Senator Jones then explained that he was not seriously considering the candidacy of Admiral Dewey because he be-lieved it to be the result of a movement originated by certain so-called Demo-erats who did not vote for Mr. Bryan four years ago and who have no in-tention of doing so if he is again named as the party standard bearer. He ad-ded that it was not usual for a candi-The Admiral receives a large amount of mail daily from prominent men in all parts of the country, principally from business men and sound money party from which he seeks support.

uninstructed delegates to the Kansas Dewey declared himself to be a Demo crat he will receive a cordial welcome into the fold, for the American people are proud of him for his gallant and meritorious services in their behalf. There are other good Democrats who rendered valuable service to their country during the Spanish-American war and the admiral will not be lonely in the Democratic ranks. He will probably receive such consideration as he de-serves, but he will have to abide the result of the convention, whatever it may be.

SUDDENLY CLAIMS J. W. WINTER: STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY AT HIS HOME

Almost without a warning, John W. Winter, better known among his many friends in Honolulu as "Jack" Winter, passed away about five minutes past 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the result of a stroke of apoplexy Death came to Mr. Winter at his residence on King street. He had not been at all well for the last few weeks but no one suspected that anything of a serious nature was the matter. He had been visiting at the house of Harry Vida on Sunday evening and at that time was evidently in excellent health, complaining of no indisposition and being in the best of

Mrs. Winter noticed during Sunday night that her husband breathed in an unusually heavy manner but she was not alarmed at all, attributing it to nothing of a grave character. Early yesterday morning Mr. Winter was still breathing very heavily; later, when the morning meal was prepared and Mr. Winter had not yet risen, one of the children entered the sleeping apartment to awaken the father. The child's efforts proved fruitless and Mrs. Winter endeavored to rouse her husband, but, being unable to do so, she became alarmed and sent for Dr. Sinclair.

Dr. Sinclair called in Dr. Cooper in consultation, realizing the nature of the trouble. Mr. Winter remained in almost the same condition, breathing with more difficulty as time went on until 1:05 p. m. yesterday, when the

The decedent leaves a wife and three children, was 44 years of age, and was born in Knoxville, Tenn. He was educated at Knox College in clalesburg, Ill., where he lived for many yeears, coming to the Hawaiian Islands fifteen years ago. He came here to accept a position as bookkeeper with William G. Irwin & Co. and afterwards became interested in the Hollister Drug Co., of which he was secretary and bookkeeper.

Mr. Winter, though of a somewhat retiring disposition, made a host of friends in this country. An affectionate husband, a devoted father, and a man respected and admired by all, his death is deeply mourned and regretted.

Messrs. Hendry and Wagner have charge of the arrangements for the funeral, which is to take place at 11 o'clock this morning from the residence on King street.
